A serious disagreement has arisen in the Yugoslav Government with respect to the problem of the Albanians. The representatives of the pro-Tito Albanian Committee for the Kosovo region have offended the Serb population as a result of their proclamations directed to Albanians living in Albania. In these proclamations particular stress was placed on what the future boundary of Albania would be when the latter entered the framework of the Yugoslav Federation, and in this connection, it was emphasized that the Albanian territory would comprise numerous localities which both historically and ethnically are Serbian. The President of the Macedonian Government has joined the President of the Serbian Government in protesting these proclamations. During the last week of July 1950 a skirmish broke out at Pristina between Albanians and Serbs of the Kosovo region, as a result of which two people were killed. At Ristovac the populace killed an Albanian who reportedly had ill-treated Serbs during the war when he was in the German Army.
